

BE A PART OF THE

15th Annual Groundwater Industry Legislative Conference: NGWA Washington Fly-in February 27-28, 2012 • Washington, D.C.

Actions speak louder than words.

— Theodore Roosevelt

As you face the many challenges before you, now is the time to act. Attend the NGWA Washington Fly-in and share your knowledge of groundwater and your business, and how public policy affects both. NGWA will set up your congressional meetings, provide you with briefings on the groundwater-related topics of the day, and give you tips for maximizing your visit.

What do past attendees have to say?

Members of Congress and their staff are hungry for accurate and up-to-date scientific engineering and sound advice. They truly appreciate visits from groundwater scientists and engineers.

— Bob Schreiber, CDM

Excellent— the briefing and our on-Hill success gets better every year.

— Lee Orton, Nebraska Well Drillers Association

NGWA staff are really on top of the key bills in front of Congress and, through the very well organized Fly-in, put the member in a position to influence decisions

— Dan Stephens, Daniel B. Stephens & Associates Inc.
